View from your terrace

Island View House is a recently refurbished, traditional Kefalonian cottage in the picturesque village of Mavrata offering stunning sea views to the island of Zante.

Mavrata is located to the southeast of the island, 4km from the pretty sand and shingle beach of Katelios where you can take a boat trip, or just enjoy the warm clear water and relax on the beach. Just 24km from the island's capital Argostoli where you can see the famous Loggerhead turtles, do some shopping and visit one of the many restaurants and cafés'. Mavrata is also close to the popular town of Skala and port of Poros.

Nestled beneath imposing mount Ainos, the rural setting of Mavrata is perfect for exploring on foot or by car. A short walk to the local taverna or the local winery or hire a car and explore further afield, there is much to do and experience. The quiet roads are perfect for discovering the island so we recommend car hire.
